Top Ten Reasons
TO ATTEND THE CONFERENCE

1. Associate with your colleagues in a unique professional and spiritual environment.
2. Earn 14 CE credits (AGD approved).
3. Learn about the many opportunities the Academy provides for humanitarian service and how you can participate.
4. Learn and implement the latest techniques and methods from the best and brightest in the profession.

“The annual Academy Conference is a great way for me to get practical C.E. and rub shoulders with other dedicated practitioners in a unique setting. I also look forward to the spiritual boost I get from the Friday evening fireside. It’s a complete package that’s hard to beat.”

—Tom Johnston, Academy President
Join us for the 41st Annual Conference of the Academy of LDS Dentists, where we bring together the nation’s best speakers for the entire oral healthcare team.

Why Attend?

EDUCATION: Our excellent clinical lectures will help enhance your professional endeavors in countless ways, from new systems and technologies to inspirational stories to new ideas in patient care.

SERVICE: Academy donations, excess membership funds, and conference profits go to support our scholarship and humanitarian efforts throughout the world. Come learn how you can get involved with helping to provide dental service to those who need it most.

FELLOWSHIP: Attending the conference provides opportunities to make or renew friendships with other colleagues and to network with one another. Family can come enjoy our spouse and youth programs and build friendships, new and old, with others who share the same ideals.

Friday Evening Banquet Fireside
Lloyd D. Newell

Take a break from professional learning to be spiritually uplifted and edified, nourishing both body and spirit. For dentists, hygienists, and spouses, the banquet fireside is included with conference registration; however, an RSVP is required at time of registration (new this year). Our special speaker will be Lloyd D. Newell.

Dr. Newell has worked as a television news anchor in Pennsylvania and Utah, as well as for CNN in Atlanta, Georgia, and is the author of more than a dozen books. Dr. Newell has been the voice and writer of the longest continuing nationwide broadcast in America, Music and the Spoken Word, since 1990.

“I absolutely love that the LDS Dental Conference is for the entire family! Not only does my husband get outstanding training for his field, but the rest of the family gets uplifted in their own unique ways. I leave the Spouse Conference inspired, rejuvenated, and excited to share what I have learned. The kids LOVE coming because of all the fun things the Academy has planned for them, and it’s a great break from our everyday routines! We love the dental conference and hope to continue this fun tradition with our family for years to come!”

—Lisa Westover, New Mexico
Along with my personal desire, I feel it is my obligation as a dental hygienist to be informed and educated on current dental concepts, products, and procedures, so I can better serve my patients and answer questions they may have expanding beyond dental hygiene and oral health. This conference gives me the opportunity to be taught by the best.

—Donita Holland, RDH, BS, Nevada
Hank Smith, PhD  Finding Joy through Building Trusting Relationships
Hank Smith teaches in the Religious Education Department at BYU and is a favorite speaker for Especially for Youth, Best of Especially for Youth, and BYU Education Week.

Hilary Weeks  Finding Joy in Daily Life
Hilary has always loved music. Her most recent CD releases Every Step, Say Love, and Love Your Life all charted in the top ten on the Christian Billboard Charts. She loves sharing the message of optimistic living.

Dorie Haws  Finding Joy in Parenting
Dorie Haws is a head teacher trainer in the Child and Family Studies Laboratory in the School of Family Life at BYU.

Liz Edmunds  Finding Joy in the Kitchen
Liz Edmunds is the author of two cookbooks: The Food Nanny Rescues Dinner (2008) and The Food Nanny Rescues Dinner Again! (2009). She also hosts the BYUtv show The Food Nanny, which showcases her passion for family dinnertime.

Rella Christensen, PhD, RDH  Finding Joy in Your Work
Rella has a PhD and leads TRAC Research—the human studies section of the nonprofit Clinicians Report Foundation, formerly called CRA, which she cofounded and directed for 27 years.

Bryce Barfuss, DDS, and Heidi Barfuss  Finding Joy in Service
Bryce and Heidi live in Twin Falls, Idaho, and enjoy hiking, backpacking, skiing, road-tripping, and serving abroad. They feel that serving and traveling together creates the best memories.

Taylor and Bailee Morris  Finding Joy Before, During, and After Adversity
Taylor and Bailee are both performers and entertainers at heart. They met through the BYU Young Ambassador program and both were members of the group for three years.

Nathan Ogden  Finding Joy in the Journey
Nathan Ogden’s life came crashing to a halt after he was instantly paralyzed in a skiing accident. By staring his excuses in the eye he found new legs to live life standing taller.

Jeff Hill, PhD, and Tammy Hill, LMFT  Igniting Joy in Marriage: Sparks that Light the Fire
Tammy is a licensed marriage and family therapist in Provo, UT, and Jeff is a professor of Family Life at BYU. Both widowed, they have experienced the challenge and joy blending a family of 12 children.

H. James Christensen, MD, and Janet Christensen  Finding Joy in Temple Attendance
James and Janet were called to preside over the Denmark Copenhagen Mission in 2004. They also served as missionaries to the England Missionary Training Centre, and President and Matron of the Copenhagen Denmark Temple.

Yvonne & Jacques Baraketse  Finding Joy in Service
Yvonne and Jacques grew up in Rwanda and both escaped during the Rwandan genocide in 1994. They now both work with refugees, wanting to help others who are experiencing similar life changes that they both experienced.

WHAT THE SPOUSE PROGRAM IS ALL ABOUT
The 2018 Academy of LDS Dentists Spouse Program is for husbands and wives of dental professionals who attend our conference. This year’s theme is “Finding Joy in the Journey.” This year, we are excited to announce that we will be able to hold the Spouse Program under the same roof as the clinicians’ program! The Spouse Program will be held in the beautiful new Harman Building Ballroom.
